Program Description

Degree Requirements

Ph.D. Degree Requirements

Students normally must complete the M.A. degree before they are eligible to enter the Ph.D. program. Students who enter the M.A. program may either complete the degree or petition for direct admission to the Ph.D. program. This petition first must be endorsed by the student's advisor and the field committee and then be approved by the department's graduate committee.

Course Requirements

- A. A minimum of 33 hours of credit at the graduate level including the following:
 - A. A minimum of three historiographical colloquia numbered HIST 801 and above
 - B. Two HIST 802 Research Seminars

C. ~~Two HIST 802 Research Seminars (taken in the second and third semesters of study, respectively)~~ HIST 805 The Nature of History

D. HIST 998 Portfolio Preparation

B. At least 24 hours of the minimum credits must be taken as HIST courses.

C. At least 18 hours of the minimum credits must be taken at the 700 level or above.

Research Skills and Responsible Scholarship

In order to fulfill the University research skills and responsible scholarship requirement, all graduate students in History must take HIST 805 and be certified by the department in a foreign language before taking the comprehensive oral exam.

Note: Contact your department or program for more information about research skills and responsible scholarship, and the current requirements for doctoral students. Current policies on Doctoral research skills and responsible scholarship are listed in the Graduate Studies section of the online catalog and in the KU Policy Library.

Portfolio and Oral Comprehensive Exam

A written portfolio of the student's work and an oral examination that will provide the candidate with an opportunity to demonstrate the knowledge they have acquired and respond to questions from the committee about their written portfolio. The student must pass their portfolio exam by is-taken-in the end fourth semester of their fifth semester of study. Any exception to taking the portfolio exam as outlined above the fourth semester requires a petition to the History Graduate Committee.

Dissertation Prospectus Defense

Students will defend their Dissertation Prospectus in an oral examination with their Advisory committee the semester following their passing of the Portfolio Exam. Students must successfully defend a dissertation The prospectus by exam is taken in the end fifth semester of their sixth semester. Any study. Any exception to this taking the prospectus exam the fifth semester requires a a petition to the History Graduate Committee.

Doctoral Dissertation and Defense

The dissertation is a book-length piece of original scholarship that makes a significant contribution to historical knowledge. The candidate for the Ph.D. must defend this piece of scholarship in an oral examination.

For more information about the Ph.D. program in History, consult the History Graduate Handbook on the History Department webpage.

Rationale for proposal

History will only be offering HIST 802 once an academic year because of lower admissions. This has caused changes to when students could take their portfolio exam and defend their dissertation prospectus as these exams are tied to when students have taken the second required HIST 802 class.
