

The College of Liberal Arts & Sciences

Call for nominations for the

2020 Grant Goodman Undergraduate Mentor Award

This annual award recognizes a faculty member who has provided outstanding mentoring and service to undergraduates in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences. We are pleased to invite all students in the College to nominate an outstanding faculty member for the Grant Goodman Undergraduate Mentor Award. Michael Priddy and his wife, Fangjie Liu, provided the support to establish this faculty award in 2013.

Eligibility:

A faculty member in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences (CLAS) who mentors undergraduate students in the College.

Criteria:

Please use the form below to explain why you feel this nominee deserves to be awarded the Grant Goodman Undergraduate Mentor Award. Please use specific examples to discuss the impact the nominee has had on your educational and career goals. The aim of the Grant Goodman Mentorship Award is to recognize an outstanding faculty member who exemplifies great teaching in and out of the classroom by mentoring students as they travel the journey of life. The recipient of this award is someone who selflessly gives of their time and experience and who continues to have lasting mentoring relationships with students long after they leave the classroom.

Deadline and Nomination Procedure:

Please use the form on the next page for your nomination. Complete nominations must be submitted to collegeawards@ku.edu by 5 p.m. on March 6, 2020. Please include the award name and nominee name in the subject line of the email.
